

Due to the success of the NJ Do Not Call list, it is evident that telemarketers would be looking to have this list stopped.

We have the right to not be interrupted by these telemarketers therefore the list should continue.